Presenting a beautifully refurbished 2-bedroom apartment that seamlessly blends contemporary style with everyday comfort. The spacious open-plan living area is bathed in natural light and features floor-to-ceiling sliding doors that lead out to a generous west-facing terrace, perfect for alfresco dining or relaxing in the evening sun. One of the double bedrooms also benefits from its own private Juliet balcony, creating a tranquil spot to enjoy your morning coffee.

Practicality is at the heart of this home, with secure covered parking for one vehicle, additional visitor spaces, and excellent storage solutions including a large private store room plus two smaller storage units.

Perfectly positioned for convenience and lifestyle, the property is just a short stroll from the waterfront promenade, local shops, and Green Street Park. With excellent transport links and a bus stop located just steps away, getting around the island couldn't be easier.

This impressive apartment combines modern design with thoughtful functionality, offering an ideal opportunity for professionals, downsizers, or anyone seeking a stylish home close to the coast.
