Situated in the sought-after location of David Place, just a short stroll from the town centre, this delightful first-floor apartment offers both convenience and character.

The property boasts generously proportioned rooms with high ceilings, creating a light and airy feel throughout. The accommodation briefly comprises:

A spacious living and dining room enhanced by a large bay window that floods the space with natural light.

A well-planned separate kitchen, ideal for everyday living. Two double bedrooms, each offering ample space and comfort. A modern bathroom with contemporary fittings.

Set within an attractive period building of just four apartments, this home combines privacy with a welcoming community feel. Its thoughtful layout maximises both space and functionality, making it equally appealing as a home or an investment opportunity.
