Nestled along a peaceful lane, this attractive one-bedroom cottage is conveniently located within easy reach of St Helier’s town centre and local amenities. Tastefully maintained and filled with natural light, the property blends period charm with a bright, welcoming atmosphere, creating a comfortable and low-maintenance home.

The cottage has been well cared for throughout and enjoys an abundance of daylight. Outside, there is a shared patio area, used by just one neighbouring cottage, offering a quiet space to relax.
