Situated on the outskirts of town yet within easy walking distance of the centre, we are delighted to present this bright and modern one-bedroom apartment enjoying lovely sea views.

The property briefly comprises a contemporary open-plan kitchen and living area, offering a light and comfortable space ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. The double bedroom is well-proportioned, and the apartment is completed by a modern shower room.

Externally, the property benefits from parking for one car and access to a large communal garden, providing pleasant outdoor space to enjoy.

An ideal first-time purchase, investment opportunity, or coastal bolt-hole, combining convenience, comfort and attractive views in a sought-after location.
